FOLK APPOINTS FOUR

Chooses Two Oil Inspectors, Manager For Nevada Asylum And For Deaf School.

Jefferson City, Jan. 4.—Gov. Folk today appointed W. C. L. Jewett, inspector of oils for the city of Shelby, and J. M. McGhee of Grand in inspector of oils for Carter county. F. A. Howard of Slater, Saline county, was appointed a member of the board of managers of state hospital for the insane, No. 3 at Nevada. Vice James M. Hale, resigned; and E. W. Dunnivant of Fulton, a member of the board of managers of the Missouri school for deaf and dumb, located at Fulton. Their terms end February 1, 1911.

Captain Carson Taken Captive

We read in the Bible of the Lord taking captivity captive, but we scarcely expected to see this demonstrated in our day. But Lord's Day afternoon Mr. Qualls of Webb City, was the lucky man to claim the hand of Captain Bertha Carson the very popular and greatly beloved leader of the Salvation Army. Quite a number of friends were present to witness the brief but impressive ceremony which was said by Reuben W. Blunt. Mr. Qualls is a fine gentleman of one of our best families and is fortunate in the selection of his bride.

The happy pair are assured of the best wishes of a host of friends. No the Captain has not surrendered to an enemy, but has enlisted another soldier.

Rice and good humor was in abundance. May they both have just as many of the joys and just as few of the sorrows as possible.

Clarence A. Stevens has gone to Springfield.

Hattie Stevens spent Sunday with the home folks.

Mrs. John Carter has gone to Ft. Smith for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson and children went to Peirce City Tuesday to visit friends.

Will Durnil is taking a short lay off and is visiting this week with his father in Enid, Okla.

An Adult Bible Class of twenty members was organized at the Christian Sunday School, Sunday.

Mrs. Clarence Jerome, of Peirce City, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Christopher Monday night.

Mrs. Ed Herron has returned from a visit to Mrs. Joe Card at Neodesha, Kan. She reports Mrs. Card as gradually failing.

Herman Wild presented the city of Sarcoxie with a tract of ground to be used as a park as a Christmas present.

Miss Alice Haines and Bradford B. Miner were married at Peirce City December 29. They will make their home at Sapulpa, Okla.

John T. Westbay returned Monday morning from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Creed Lewis at Kansas City.

Mrs. J. M. Mitchell and son Ralph returned to her home after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Mills.

Evangelist Finney of Greenville, Tex., will begin revival meetings at the Baptist church, January 31. Rev. Finney was in Monett several years ago and held a very successful meeting in the Baptist church.

The Peirce City Athletic team added another splendid victory to their record Tuesday night when they defeated the Joplin Athletic team by a score of 39 to 13.—Peirce City Journal.

Night Watchman Hagler arrested Saturday night a man by the name of Thornhill who was wanted in Fairland, Okla., for stealing $10. The Fairland constable came up Monday morning and took the prisoner back with him.

GOLDEN ROD AS A REMEDY

Plant Dedicated to St. Augustine of Hippo Was Once Used by Physicians.

St. Augustine of Hippo, the great doctor of the church whose festival fell on August 28, is a sadly neglected saint among modern ritualists, and even occasionally confused with the namesake who insulted our British bishops. Yet he is pronounced by Hooker "without any equal," and regarded by Harnack as "the first modern man." He has been better honored in the floral world, for to him is dedicated the golden rod or wound wort (Solidago virgaurea). Old Gerard, with whom this was a favorite remedy, tells us that golden rod fetched a high price as a foreign herb until discovered growing near London, when the plant was neglected. He adds the caustic comment: "This verifieth our English proverb 'Far fetched and dear bought is best for ladies,' or for fantastical physicians." Before tobacco the golden rod also furnished snuff for our medicinal forefathers.—Westminster Gazette.

IMPECUNIOUS.

"My dear, I wish you would bring me 'The Holy City'!"
"Good gracious, love! I can't even afford to buy Brighton!"

CHEAP WEDDING BREAKFAST.

After making special arrangements with a restaurant proprietor to decorate a table with flowers and assign special waiters to it, a bridegroom who was married here recently, who had said that a wedding party of 32 persons would order after they had seated themselves, appeared at the appointed time with the party and ordered coffee and cake for them, which they took one hour to consume.

After finishing their feast the happy husband gave the much chagrined proprietor $3.20 and left.—Astoria Correspondence, San Francisco Call.

HEIGHT OF CRIMINALS.

Dr. Charles Perrier says that criminals are for the most part of medium height. Thieves, he says, he found to be almost exclusively of medium stature and beggars nearly always of medium or slightly under that height. "It is seldom," he says, "that a fully developed beggar nature can be found in a large frame." Murderers, on the other hand, his observations prove to be above the average in size. All the prisoners under punishment for arson and for counterfeiting measured by him came under the head of "small." His observations were made in France.

TACT.

"You insisted on our coming to this hot, horrid place," shrilled Mrs. Outsome, "and I'm sunburned till I look like an Apache Indian!"
"Not at all, my love," said Mr. Outsome. "Your complexion is a clear, beautiful light brown."

Thus did a soft tan, sir, as it were, turn away wrath.

RASHNESS.

The candidate for office had openly advocated honesty.

Naturally the other managers of the machine were indignant.

"I always said that fellow was no politician," commented one, and the rest agreed that the outlook was dubious.

THE TROUBLE.

Lowe Comedy—Yes, Starman, the tragedian, is hopelessly mad.

Hi Tragedy—Overstudy?

Lowe Comedy—No, his understudy. He made a bigger hit in the part than Starman.—Philadelphia Press.

Music Club

The Music Club held their first meeting for the new year at the home of Mrs. J. T. Wilkerson. The session was most interesting. The composer studied was Mozart.

Following is the program:
Piano Solo—Mrs. J. J. Peck
Piano Solo—Mrs. L. Isaac
Piano Solo—Mrs. J. T. Wilkerson
Piano Duet—Mrs. F. R. Miller and Mrs. Walter Draper
Piano Solo—Mrs. H. C. Kepner
Piano Solo—Mrs. F. P. Sizer
Vocal Solo—Mrs. Wm. Kines
Piano Solo—Miss Lucile Boynton

The Club planned for a full musical program on next Monday of selections from Mozart's compositions. The meetings for this month will be held at Mrs. Wilkerson's home.

Everybody's for January.

"What is to be done about alien immigration?" We are always asking ourselves this. There is an answer, and a practical one, and John L. Mathews has outlined it in the story of "Tontitown," in the January number of Everybody's Magazine. There is no preaching about it, no theorizing—it tells of accomplishment, and as a story it is told with a lot of heart and convincing simplicity.

It fiction the January number is strong. Joseph C. Lincoln contributes "The Ser and the Servant," one of his whimsical tales of the "Cape Cod folks." Julia Kennett Colt has a virile hunting story with unusual characterization, entitled "Max Marshall's Wife." "The Pill," by J. Storer Clouston, a humorous yarn about a baronet with aristocratic tendencies and a fortune made out of a wonderful "balm for the bilious." "The Branded Man's Gift," by Alvah Milton Kerr and "The Madness of Willie Trent," by Justus Miles Forman, both remarkable and powerful stories.

Verse there is, too: "The Lovers" by Helen Huntington; "A Sunset Moment," by Grace Hazard Conkling, and "Keep Playing," by Herbert Kaufman; and "Little Stories of Real Life," by G. W. Ogden and James Pratt Brown, which, with "The Players" and the usual departments, conclude a notable number.
